AURORA PRIZE

FOR AWAKENING HUMANITY

AURORA PRIZE
FOR AWAKENING HUMANITY

A MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDERS

On March 10th of this year, we had the distinct privilege of launching the 100 LIVES initiative in New York to honor the centenary of the Genocide where an estimated 1.5 million Armenians were killed. The program was created as a means to express gratitude to those whose heroic actions saved Armenian lives 100 years ago.

In this day and age tragic issues and events such as poverty, natural disasters, disease, and human rights violations still plague the world's population. We believe it is the responsibility of all of us to address these issues through the power of positive action.

We can do that by learning from the stories of the past, such as those we are gathering for 100 LIVES. And yet, we can also deliver for the present by recognizing the individuals that commit outstanding acts of humanity and by empowering the organizations whose cause they support. That is exactly what we have set out to achieve through the Aurora Prize for Awakening Humanity.

This annual Prize has been established to raise public consciousness about tragic events that occur around the globe, and reward those working to address those issues in a real and substantial manner.

Through the Aurora Prize, our goal is to recognize and contribute to the efforts of those making a real and meaningful difference in the lives of others.

To achieve that goal we have gathered together a group of inspiring individuals, united in their understanding and commitment to the principles of humanitarianism and social justice, whose extraordinary achievements in the field of human rights give them an exceptional perspective into what humanitarian acts should be given the recognition they deserve.

This brochure outlines what makes this unique initiative so powerful. We are extremely excited about the positive change that the Aurora Prize can make and it is our profound hope that we might be able to complement and support the invaluable work being done by you and your organization in the field of human rights.

Moreover, we would truly welcome your suggestions of potential nominees when the inaugural award nominations page goes live July 1. Through all of our efforts, we look forward to the established and sustained success of the Aurora Prize for Awakening Humanity.

INTRODUCING THE AURORA PRIZE FOR AWAKENING HUMANITY

The Aurora Prize for Awakening Humanity is a new global award that will be presented annually to individuals who put themselves at risk to enable others to survive. Recipients will be recognised for the exceptional impact their actions have made to preserving human life and advancing humanitarian causes, having overcome significant challenges along the way.

A $1 MILLION
GRANT
FOR INSPIRING
ACTS OF HUMANITY

WHAT MAKES THE PRIZE UNIQUE

Every year the winners will be honoured with a $100,000 award as well as the unique ability to continue the cycle of giving by nominating an organization which inspired their work and is consistent with the spirit of the Prize, for a $1,000,000 grant.

The Aurora Prize is designed to further the causes that motivate people to risk their health, freedom, reputation, or livelihood by voluntarily carrying out acts that enable others to survive and thrive.

The Aurora Prize will be awarded annually on April 24th in Yerevan, Armenia.

WHO CAN WIN THE PRIZE?

Any individual or a group that commits an extraordinary act of humanity.

NOMINATIONS CRITERIA

Nominations will be carefully vetted and reviewed through a rigorous process, and the final selection will be made by the independent Selection Committee based on the following criteria:

COURAGE

The extent to which the nominated party's actions demonstrate:

Courage in helping others survive

Having overcome significant risks for the sake of helping others survive

Going beyond the call of duty of professional obligations for the sake of helping others survive

COMMITMENT

The extent to which the nominated party's actions demonstrate:

An explicit intention to help others to survive

A direct involvement in helping others to survive

A commitment to moral values such as integrity, freedom, justice, honesty, truthfulness, responsibility and compassion

IMPACT

The extent to which the nominated party's actions demonstrate:

An impact on their community, country or on the world at large

A long-term effect in saving lives

Inspiration to others to save lives, directly or indirectly

Saving lives of a large number of individuals

WHAT ORGANIZATION CAN RECEIVE THE GRANT?

Potential recipients will also be asked to nominate an organization or an institution that advances humanitarian causes or provides community services.

This organization would receive the prize money if the candidate were to be selected. The organization that is identified would need to be operating on a not-for-profit basis, focused on acting in the public interest and having a mission to benefit humankind.

WHO CAN NOMINATE FOR THE AURORA PRIZE?

Any members of the public, including members of national assemblies, governments, academic and other institutions.

THE AURORA PRIZE SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Aurora Prize has gathered an extraordinary group of people to be part of the Aurora Prize Selection Committee. All of them are accomplished in a diverse range of fields, but are united in their commitment to the principles of humanitarianism and social justice. Their individual achievements give them an excellent perspective into what humanitarian acts deserve to be given global recognition.

The role of the Selection Committee will be to evaluate nominations against a set of pre-agreed criteria and recommend the Prize winner based on their expertise.

The Selection Committee will be independent but supported by the Aurora Prize Secretariat for all functional and operational matters.

“Serving as co-chairs of the Aurora Prize Selection Committee, Elie Wiesel and I have the opportunity to highlight and reward the relentless work of individuals who have made personal sacrifices to help other less fortunate people around the world.”

ABOUT THE FOUNDERS

VARTAN GREGORIAN

Co-Founder, 100 LIVES; President of the Carnegie Corporation of New York

Vartan Gregorian is President of the Carnegie Corporation of New York. Following an admirable academic career spanning two decades, Vartan served as the President of the New York Public Library. He is widely credited with restoring the status of the library as a cultural landmark.

Vartan was President of Brown University between 1989 and 1997. During his tenure, he introduced the President's Lecture Series and led a campaign that raised over $500 million.

In 2004, he received the Presidential Medal of Freedom. In 2009, President Obama also appointed him to serve on the President's Commission on White House Fellowships. Vartan Gregorian will serve as a Selection Committee Member for the Aurora Prize.

NOUBAR AFEYAN

Managing Partner and CEO of Flagship Ventures; inventor, entrepreneur, CEO and venture capitalist.

Dr. Afeyan has co-founded and helped to build nearly 30 successful start-ups.

Dr. Afeyan serves on a number of public and private company and organization boards, including the Boston Symphony Orchestra, UWC Dilijan College in Armenia, and an organization promoting economic development in Armenia.

A true academic, Noubar is a Senior Lecturer at MIT's Sloan School of Management. He has authored numerous scientific publications and patents and lectures widely in the United States and globally.

RUBEN VARDANYAN

Well-known entrepreneur and philanthropist, a Co-Founder and Chairman of RVVZ Foundation.

Previously, Ruben was the CEO and Chairman of Troika Dialog, which was one of the oldest and largest investment banks in Russia and the CIS, until the merger of that company with Sberbank in January 2012.

Mr. Vardanyan is a Board Member at numerous entities in Russia and abroad, including universities and business schools in Japan, Brazil and Russia. He is a founding partner of Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO and Vice-Chairman of SKOLKOVO International Advisory Board.

An active philanthropist in both Russia and Armenia, Mr. Vardanyan is engaged in a number of development projects and is leading several initiatives aimed at advancing Armenians, including helping to open UWC Dilijan College, world-class education institution in Armenia. He has received numerous awards and honors, and has been recognized for his leadership and reputation within the financial community.

AURORA

MARDIGANIAN

WHY AURORA?

The inspiration for the name of the Prize stems from the Roman Goddess of Dawn since the Prize is a means of awakening humanity to the suffering that goes on around the world and the heroic acts that, while often going unnoticed, create brighter tomorrows for people worldwide.

The name Aurora was also chosen to honor the memory of Aurora Mardiganian who, as a child, was forced to witness the atrocities of the Armenian Genocide, including losing her father and brothers. Against the odds she survived and went on to tell the world her story and raise awareness of the 1915 atrocities. The Prize was inspired by Aurora, and the thousands of untold stories of courage and survival during these events, 100 years ago.
